

Bio

Sara Fine-Wilson is an artist and teacher who works primarily in sculpture. She attended The Maryland Institute college of Art, Massachusetts College of Art and the University of the arts in Philadelphia. Residencies she has participated in include being Ceramic Resident artist at The Worcester Center for Crafts and a Ceramic Studio Residency at Skidmore College. Her work has been shown in many galleries and museums including Fitchburg Art Museum, Danforth Museum of Art, Gallery 540 at Urban Outfitters World Headquarters. She is an associate member of the Fountain Street Gallery in Boston, MA where her work is exhibited regularly. She currently teaches Ceramics and 2D Design. She continues to work in her studio in Millbury Massachusetts where she lives with her husband Bruce and her dog Arlo.