Boston, MA– In June, we see artists Christine Soeltz, Kristin Street, and Nyia Yannatos explore the joining of real and imaginary worlds. Inspiration from the natural world leads to abstract exploration through ink, paint, and sculpture.

Christine Soeltz

In 2019 Soeltz stepped away from her art teaching career in the public schools of Wayland, MA, and concentrate on her art. She has shown locally, receiving recognition for paintings from The James Library and Center for the Arts, Norwell, MA and from ATAC in Framingham, MA. Soeltz holds a MS Degree in Technology in Education and a BS in Art Education. She resides in Acton, MA and works at Central Street Studios.

Kristin Street

Street earned a BFA in Textiles from the Rhode Island School of Design in 1980 and an MFA from The Maryland Institute College of Art in Sculpture/Studio Art in 2005. Establishing The Krause Gallery in Providence RI and The Mill Gallery in Pawtucket, RI. has allowed her to promote the efforts of other artists. Street has exhibited in museums and galleries locally, nationally and internationally. She currently lives in Foster, RI.

Nyia Yannatos

[FOUNTAIN STREET]

Yannatos trained as a musician, and later as a landscape designer. Both disciplines inform her art. Yannatos' work also has been shown at Charles River Studio in Watertown, MA and in an outdoor installation at Habitat Wildlife Sanctuary in Belmont, MA. She lives in Cambridge and has her studio at 11 Miller Street in Somerville, MA.
