

FOUNTAIN STREET GALLERY TO CLOSE MARCH 31ST

BOSTON – Fountain Street Gallery, located in the SoWa Art + Design District of Boston, will be closing its doors on March 31, 2024. The gallery, founded in 2011 by artists Marie Craig and Cheryl (Cherie) Clinton, has presented over 200 exhibitions of contemporary work by emerging and mid-career artists. In addition to its innovative and thoughtfully curated shows, Fountain Street is known for its camaraderie and collaborative spirit. It was named Best Art Gallery in Boston Magazine’s Best of Boston® 2019.

“Our passion has always been about connecting art seekers and makers,” says Craig, the gallery’s director. “We’ve had a phenomenal run, and now it’s time for the next generation of gallerists to make their mark. I am filled with gratitude for all of the artists, collectors, friends and fans who came together over the years to create this remarkable community.”

Fountain Street first opened its doors in the Bancroft Building in Framingham, MA. Since 2017, when the gallery moved to its Boston location, the Fountain Street Main and Annex Galleries have featured a wide range of media—including painting, drawing, prints, photography, sculpture, installation, time-based and mixed media—primarily by New England artists. The Sidewalk Video Gallery, a 24/7 display of video and other digital media art, has hosted artists from around the world.

Patrons can continue to purchase work by Fountain Street artists online through the end of 2024 at 1stDibs.com. The final months in the gallery will feature exhibitions by Fountain Street’s core artists, starting with “Limitless Translations: The Artist as Storyteller,” on view through January 14, 2024.

Contact

Marie Craig, Director, (774) 286-1800

Fountain Street Gallery, 460C Harrison Ave. Suite 2, Boston, MA 02118

director@fsfaboston.com

www.fsfaboston.com